

View this newsletter online as a PDF

Union News

Vol. 5, Issue 12 | April 24, 2014

National AAUP Election Results

www.insidehighered.com

“Rudy Fichtenbaum, professor of economics at Wright State University, will remain president of the American Association of University Professors for a second term, the organization announced Thursday, along with the other winners of its recent election. Fichtenbaum defeated Jane Buck, a past president of the AAUP, 2,114 to 1,964. The other top three officers also are incumbents. Henry Reichman, professor emeritus of history at the University of California at East Bay, will stay on as first vice president, while Susan Michalczyk, professor in the Honors Program at Boston College, remains second vice-president. Michele Ganon, professor of accounting at Western Connecticut State University, is treasurer.”

Read full article at Inside Higher Ed. For the complete AAUP election results, read here. Congratulations also to Irene Mulvey (Fairfield University) who won Council Representative for District IX (Connecticut, New Hampshire, and Vermont).

CT State Conference AAUP Spring Dinner

The Connecticut State Conference AAUP Spring Meeting will be held on Thursday, May 8 from 5:30-9pm at the Graduate Club in New Haven. This year’s Distinguished Presenter will be Dr Gerald Epstein, Professor of Economics and Co-Director of the Political Economy Research Institute (PERI) at the University of Massachusetts-Amherst. The title of Dr. Epstein’s presentation is “Are Economics Faculty Selling Out To Market Interests?”

The full cost for CSU-AAUP members and one guest is paid by CSU-AAUP and their Chapter. If you are interested in attending, please complete the registration form and mail it to your AAUP Chapter Office or call your AAUP office to register for the meeting.

Have a question? Get the answer! Call (860) 832-3790 or email us at bensonell@ccsu.edu